NOTICE OF RECRUITMENT TO FILL VACANT POSITION ON THE LEWIS COUNTY WATER CONSERVANCY BOARD

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the LEWIS COUNTY, Washington, BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS is seeking persons willing to serve as members of the Lewis County Water Conservancy Board. Currently, there is one unfilled position.

The Lewis County Water Conservancy Board works closely with water rights transfer applicants and the Department of Ecology and makes recommendations on certain water rights applications within Lewis County. Board members are appointed by the Board of County Commissioners for terms of two to four years. The Water Conservancy Board meetings are held in the evening, the third Thursday of each month at the US Department of Agriculture, located in Chehalis. Meetings are normally two to three hours in length.

Any Lewis County resident interested in serving as a member of the Water Conservancy Board should send a letter of interest, a completed application form, and brief resume to the Lewis County Board of Commissioners, 351 NW North Street, Chehalis Washington, 98532. Application forms are available at the Lewis County website: lewiscountywa.gov, or at:

Lewis County Community Development
2025 Kresky Ave. NE
Chehalis, WA 98532

Appointments are made by the Board of County Commissioners without respect to political affiliation to persons representing varying geographic, demographic and socio-economic perspectives within the County, and who will collectively represent a broad range of local opinion, experience and expertise. Applicants cannot be affiliated with any municipal organization.

Letters of interest must be received by the Board no later than 5:00 p.m., April 30, 2010.
