7.3.5. 7.5.3. Maintenance of Benefits. The trustees of the Washington Teamsters Welfare Trust may modify benefits or eligibility of any plan for purpose of cost containment, cost management, or changes in medical technology and treatment. In the event premiums are increased, the Employer’s contribution shall at all times be eight hundred fifty-seven dollars and ninety-seven cents ($857.97) towards the plans outlined in 7.5.1. Those premiums will be allocated by agreement of the parties so that dental and vision insurance is fully paid through the Employer’s contribution.

Upon Union request, copies of all transmittals pertaining to benefits under this Section shall be posted on the Union bulletin board.

7.5.7. Transferred Employee. Whenever an employee is transferred and/or promoted into the Supervisor’s bargaining unit from another bargaining or from a non-represented position in which health care is not provided through the Washington Teamsters Welfare Trust, and where the employee would otherwise have a one-month gap in coverage under the Washington Teamsters Welfare Trust due to the Trust’s lag month eligibility rules, the Employer shall be required to make a double premium contribution for health care coverage to pay for the normal initial month of coverage provided by the Trust as well as the preceding lag month which is not normally covered during an employee’s eligibility period when enrolling in health care coverage provided under the Washington Teamsters Welfare Trust.

a) For the purposes of premium cost sharing, if any, the employee shall be responsible for their portion of the premium as set forth in this agreement, excluding the month in which double premium contribution is made. The Employer shall pay the entire premium of the second (2nd) contribution.

7.6. Bereavement Leave

7.6.1. Up to three (3) days with pay shall be granted without any sick leave debit in the case of a death of the employee's spouse, spouse's parents, child, parent, grandparents, siblings, spouse's siblings, or other person who is a non-pecuniary resident of the employee's household.

7.6.2. An employee shall be allowed to utilize up to three (3) sick leave days for bereavement in the case of death of a member of the employee's "immediate family". "Immediate Family" shall include only persons related by blood, marriage, or legal adoption in the degree of consanguinity of grandparent, parent, spouse, brother, sister, child, or grandchild, and any other person who is a non-pecuniary resident of the employee's household.

7.7. Sick Leave

7.7.1. With each month of completed continuous employment with Employer, sick leave with pay shall be accrued by each full-time employee at the rate of eight (8) hours. There shall be a maximum accumulation of thirteen hundred twenty (1320) hours. Part-time employees who are employed on a regular basis or on a regular schedule shall be entitled under their contract of employment to that fractional part of the sick leave that the total number of hours of employment bears to the total number of hours of full-time employment.

7.7.2. Sick leave may be used in half hour increments. Accrued sick leave shall be debited in accordance with actual time of absence due to illness.

7.7.3. An employee may take leave for illness, requiring the employee's attendance, in their immediate family. "Immediate family" shall include only persons related by blood, marriage or legal adoption in the degree of consanguinity of grandparent, parent, wife, husband, brother, sister, child, or grandchild, and/or person who is a non-pecuniary resident the employee's household. An employee may use accrued sick leave for maternity, paternity, or child birth purposes.

7.7.4. An employee who takes more than three (3) work days sick leave due to any one illness or three (3) consecutive sick leave days for self or for illness in the immediate family may be required by the Employer or his designee to produce a letter from a medical doctor verifying the illness or necessity of attendance.

7.7.5. Employees on leave for an occupational injury or illness shall be allowed to supplement their time loss payment with accrued sick leave up to one hundred percent (100%) of the employee's regular salary.

7.7.9. At the time of separation from service for any reason, except just cause termination, an eligible employee, or, in the case of death, the employee's estate, shall receive remuneration at a rate equal to one (1) hour's current straight time monetary compensation of the employee for each two (2) hours of accrued sick leave, to a maximum of three hundred sixty (360) hours of pay

7.8. Educational Reimbursement

7.8.1. The Employer is desirous of having employees participate in courses and training opportunities to enhance their skills and enable them to advance to other positions. Accordingly, it shall be the Employer's goal to assist full-time, regular employees in the furtherance of this policy by offering a tuition reimbursement program for courses or training at accredited colleges and universities.

7.8.2. To qualify for reimbursement, the employee must make application to, and receive prior approval from, the Department Head. Such approval shall be at the sole discretion of the Department Head.

7.8.3. An employee requesting tuition reimbursement must submit a written application showing: a) the course curriculum description; b) dates and times of classes; c) duration of the course; d) narrative statement of how the course will benefit the Employer as well as the employee.

7.8.4. If an employee's application is approved, the reimbursement will be for tuition only if and when: a) the course is completed within six (6) months of approval; b) completed with a "pass" in a pass/fail grading system or a grade of "C" or better. The maximum reimbursement per credit will be the cost of a credit charged by Centralia College.

7.8.5. An employee who receives tuition reimbursement agrees to continue to work for the Employer for twelve (12) months following the completion of the course; if not, the reimbursement is pro-rated and the employee authorizes reimbursement to the Employer from the last pay check issued. An employee who is unable to remain in the Employer's employment, due to circumstances beyond the employee's control, shall not be required to reimburse the Employer if the twelve (12) month period is not met.

7.8.6. Reimbursement shall be for actual tuition, or the cost of the course. All other expenses, such as travel and books, shall be borne by the employee.

7.9. Longevity

7.9.1. For each year of continuous service, beginning with the eighty-fifth (85th) month, with this Employer as measured by the employee's seniority date, the employee shall receive longevity pay as described below:

After 8 years	$ 48.00 per month

8.1.2. Just Cause shall be defined as defined in the case Enterprise Wire Co. and Enterprise Independent Union, March 28, 1966, 46 LA 359.

8.2. Types of Discipline

8.2.1. Listed, but without limitation, the forms of discipline shall generally include the following:

8.2.2. Oral Warning: This type of discipline should generally be used for infractions of relatively minor degree. The Employer and/or designee should endeavor to inform the employee, in private, that it is an oral warning and that the employee is being given an opportunity to correct the condition. If the condition is not corrected, the employee may be subject to more severe disciplinary measures.

8.2.3. Written Warning: This notice will generally be issued by the Employer and/or designee in the event the employee disregards an oral warning or if the infraction is severe enough to warrant a written record in the employee's personnel file. The Employer will set forth in the notice the nature of the infraction.

8.2.4. Demotion: This form of discipline is generally administered when the employee's actions or inaction's have continued or recurred after being advised of misconduct, or failure, or after commission of a serious act of misconduct or when unable to adequately perform the responsibilities of the position held.

8.2.5. Suspension: This form of discipline is generally administered as a result of a violation after the employee has received a written warning and has not adequately improved or corrected performance or after commission of a serious act of misconduct. The Employer shall inform the employee in writing of the disciplinary action. The original signed copy of the disciplinary action notice is to be placed in the employee's personnel file and a copy provided to the employee.

8.2.6. Discharge: This form of discipline results in termination of employment. If in the opinion of the Employer, the infraction(s) is (are) so severe as to necessitate immediate termination, the Employer and/or designee should take action by placing the employee on suspension without pay until circumstances are reviewed prior to final action. A predetermination hearing in which the employee is advised of the basis for discharge shall occur prior to a termination.

9. GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

9.1. Purpose and Scope

9.1.1. For purposes of this article, a grievance is defined as a dispute or complaint arising under and during the term of this Agreement, raised by an employee or the Union, involving an alleged misapplication or misinterpretation of an express provision of this Agreement. This grievance procedure shall be the exclusive means for resolving such grievances.

9.2. Time Limits

9.2.1. Time limits within the grievance procedure may be waived or extended by the mutual agreement of both parties. If the Union, on behalf of the employee, fails to act or respond within the specified time limits, the grievance will be considered waived. If the Employer fails to respond within the specified time limits, the grievance shall proceed to the next available step of the grievance procedure.

9.3. Processing Steps

The BOCC or designee shall respond in writing within fourteen (14) calendar days following receipt of the Union's grievance.

9.3.3. Step Three: Should Step Two fail to resolve the grievance, the Union, shall, within fourteen (14) calendar days after the Union's receipt of the BOCC or designee decision, give written notice to the Employer of its intent to submit the grievance to arbitration.

9.4.1. Within fourteen (14) calendar days of the Employer's receipt of the Union's request to arbitrate, a representative of the Union and a representative of the Employer shall meet and attempt to agree on a neutral arbitrator or to have a PERC staff arbitrator assigned. If unable to reach agreement, they shall request a list of eleven (11) arbitrators from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service ("FMCS"). The list shall be limited to arbitrators who are members of the National Academy of Arbitrators from the nearest sub-region

9.4.2. The arbitrator shall have no power to render a decision that will add to, subtract from or alter, change, or modify the terms of this Agreement, and his or her power shall be limited to interpretation or application of the express terms of this Agreement, and all other matters shall be excluded from arbitration.

9.4.3 The arbitrator shall rule only on the basis of information presented in the hearing and shall refuse to receive any information after the hearing except in the presence of both parties and upon mutual agreement.

9.4.5 Each party shall bear the costs associated with the arbitration, including its attorney's fees, and shall pay one-half of the cost of the arbitrator.

9.4.6 Either party may request that a stenographic record of the hearing be made. The party requesting such record shall bear the cost thereof, provided, however, if the other party requests a copy, such cost shall be shared equally. The arbitrator's decision shall be made in writing and shall be issued to the parties.

Earned overtime shall be subject to payment at the pay date following the month in which such overtime was earned. A mid-month draw day shall be permitted to the employee to the extent allowed by statute.

At the sole discretion of the Employer, and upon sixty (60) days advance written notice to the Union and the employees in the bargaining unit, an alternate payday may be selected and utilized. Once such alternate payday is established by the Commissioners, it shall remain the payday for the balance of the agreement. Such alternate payday for all work performed in a calendar month shall be the last courthouse working day of the calendar month. Earned overtime and premium pay (holiday, working out of class, etc.) if any, shall be subject to calculation from the 21st of the month to the 20th of the following month, with payment at the pay date next following the period in which such overtime was earned.

Will there be any coverage changes before the Collective Bargaining Agreement's expiration? Yes No. If yes, attach a Subscription Agreement for each change. A Subscription Agreement must be submitted in advance of the effective date below.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF COVERAGE

The contribution rates above are due effective (month/year) January, 2010 based on employment in the prior month.

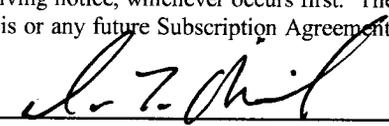

Note: Coverage is provided using a lag month, therefore coverage is effective in the month following the month contributions are due. For example, contributions due effective April based on March employment will provide coverage in May.

EXPIRATION OF COLLECTIVE BARGAINING AGREEMENT

Upon expiration of the above-referenced Collective Bargaining Agreement, the Employer agrees to continue to contribute to the Trust in the same amount and manner as required in the Collective Bargaining Agreement until such time as the Employer and the Labor Organization either enter into a successor Collective Bargaining Agreement, which conforms to the Trust Operating Guidelines, or one party notifies the other in writing (with a copy to the Trust) of its intent to cancel such obligation five (5) days after receiving notice, whichever occurs first. The Trust reserves the right to immediately terminate participation in the Trust upon the failure to execute this or any future Subscription Agreement or to comply with the Trust Operating Guidelines as amended by the Trustees from time to time.

ELIGIBILITY TO PARTICIPATE IN TRUST

Eligibility for benefits is determined in accordance with the requirements established in the Collective Bargaining Agreement provided such requirements are consistent with the Trust guidelines. To establish eligibility for benefits, Trust guidelines require that eligible employees must have the required number of hours in a month and have the contractually required contributions paid on their behalf. Eligibility will commence according to the Trust's lag month eligibility rule. Eligibility continues as long as the employee remains eligible, has the contractually required number of hours per month, and has the required contributions made. The Trust, however, will not recognize any contractual provision that conditions continued eligibility on having less than 40 or more than 80 hours in a month. Eligibility will end according to the Trust's policy for employees that do not have the required number of hours and contributions in a month and that do not qualify for an applicable extension of eligibility, if any.

Employees of a participating employer not performing work covered by the Collective Bargaining Agreement may participate in the Trust only pursuant to a written special agreement approved in writing by the Trustees. The Trustees reserve the right to recover any and all benefits provided to ineligible individuals from either the ineligible individual receiving the benefits or the employer responsible for misreporting them (if applicable).

REPORTING OBLIGATION AND CONSEQUENCES OF DELINQUENCY

Employer contributions are due no later than ten (10) days after the last day of each month for which contributions are due. The Employer acknowledges that in the event of any delinquency, the Trust Agreement provides for the payment of liquidated damages, interest and attorney fees and costs incurred in collecting the delinquent amounts.

TRUSTEES' AUTHORITY TO DETERMINE TERMS OF PLANS

The parties recognize that the detail of the benefit plans provided by the Trust and the rules under which employees and their dependents shall be eligible for such benefits is determined solely by the Board of Trustees of the Trust in accordance with the terms of the governing Agreement and Declaration of Trust (Trust Agreement). The Trustees retain the sole discretion and authority to interpret the terms of the Trust's benefit plans, the plans' eligibility requirements, and other matters related to the administration and operation of the Trust and its benefit plans. The Trustees may modify benefits or eligibility of any plan for the purpose of cost containment, cost management, or changes in medical technology and treatment.

MECHANISM FOR HANDLING CONTRIBUTION INCREASES

The Trustees' authority shall include the right to adjust the contribution rates to support the benefit plans offered by the Trust and to maintain adequate reserves to cover any extended eligibility and the Trust's contingent liability.

The parties recognize that it is the intent of the Trust not to provide employee benefit plans for less than the full cost of any such plan. If the Collective Bargaining Agreement does not provide a mechanism for fully funding the designated benefit plans, the Board of Trustees may substitute a plan then available that is fully supported by the employer's contribution obligations. The disposition of any excess employer contributions will be subject to the collective bargaining process.

ACCEPTANCE OF TRUST AGREEMENT

The Employer and the Labor Organization accept and agree to be bound by the terms of the Trust Agreement governing the Trust, and any subsequent amendments to the Trust Agreement. The parties accept as their representatives for purposes of participating in the Trust the Trustees serving on the Board of Trustees and their duly appointed successors.

Provided, however, that in the event that either Section 2 or 3 of Article VIII of the Trust Agreement is amended to change or modify an Employer's liability as specified therein, such amendment will not be deemed applicable to an Employer until such time as the Employer enters into a successor Collective Bargaining Agreement after the expiration of the Employer's then current Collective Bargaining Agreement.

APPROVAL OF TRUSTEES

This Agreement has been approved by the Board of Trustees of the Washington Teamsters Welfare Trust.
