

ICS 300

September 20 - 21, 2011 ~ 8:30 am – 5:00 pm

ICS 300 is the intermediate study of the Incident Command System and is designed for first responders, public works personnel, emergency workers and all others that may hold a supervisory position during an incident.

Trainers:

Chief Steve North, Jesi Chapin &
Chief Ken Walkington

"Dynamic, interactive, engaging, knowledgeable, fun..." A few words that prior participants have used to describe this team.

Location:

Lewis Co. FD#5
115 East Washington St.
Napavine, WA

To Register:

Send completed application to:
Sonya Kroese
2703-B Pacific Ave. SE
Olympia, WA 98501
Phone: 360-704-2763
Fax: 360-704-2775
kroeses@co.thurston.wa.us

FY '10 NIMS Requirement

FREE!

- Registration is on a first come first serve basis.
- Prerequisites:
 - ICS 100
 - ICS 200
 - IS 700
- Preference will be given to registrants living or working in Lewis County
- Lunch is on your own each day.
- We strive to bring quality programs to this region. Your input and feedback is appreciated

For additional training opportunities, please visit our website.
www.co.thurston.wa.us/hsr3/Training/training