ELIGIBILITY TO PARTICIPATE IN TRUST

Eligibility for benefits is determined in accordance with the requirements established in the Collective Bargaining Agreement provided such requirements are consistent with the Trust guidelines. To establish eligibility for benefits, Trust guidelines require that eligible employees must have the required number of hours in a month and have the contractually required contributions paid on their behalf. Eligibility will commence according to the Trust's lag month eligibility rule. Eligibility continues as long as the employee remains eligible, has the contractually required number of hours per month, and has the required contributions made. The Trust, however, will not recognize any contractual provision that conditions continued eligibility on having less than 40 or more than 80 hours in a month. Eligibility will end according to the Trust's policy for employees who do not have the required number of hours and contributions in a month and who do not qualify for an applicable extension of eligibility, if any.

Employees of a participating employer not performing work covered by the Collective Bargaining Agreement may participate in the Trust only pursuant to a written special agreement approved by writing by the Trustees. The Trustees reserve the right to recover any and all benefits provided to ineligible individuals from either the ineligible individual receiving the benefits or the employer responsible for misreporting them (if applicable).

REPORTING OBLIGATION AND CONSEQUENCES OF DELINQUENCY

Employer contributions are due no later than ten (10) days after the last day of each month for which contributions are due. The Employer acknowledges that in the event of any delinquency, the Trust Agreement provides for the payment of liquidated damages, interest, attorney fees, and costs incurred in collecting the delinquent amounts.

TRUSTEES' AUTHORITY TO DETERMINE TERMS OF PLANS

The parties recognize that the detail of the benefit plans provided by the Trust and the rules under which employees and their dependents shall be eligible for such benefits is determined solely by the Board of Trustees of the Trust in accordance with the terms of the governing Agreement and Declaration of Trust (Trust Agreement). The Trustees retain the sole discretion and authority to interpret the terms of the Trust's benefit plans, the plans' eligibility requirements, and other matters related to the administration and operation of the Trust and its benefit plans. The Trustees may modify benefits or eligibility of any plan for the purpose of cost containment, cost management, or changes in medical technology and treatment.

MECHANISM FOR HANDLING CONTRIBUTION INCREASES

The Trustees' authority shall include the right to adjust the contribution rates to support the benefit plans offered by the Trust and to maintain adequate reserves to cover any extended eligibility and the Trust's contingent liability.

The parties recognize that it is the intent of the Trust not to provide employee benefit plans for less than the full cost of any such plan. If the Collective Bargaining Agreement does not provide a mechanism for fully funding the designated benefit plans, the Board of Trustees may substitute a plan then available that is fully supported by the employer's contribution obligations. The disposition of any excess employer contributions will be subject to the collective bargaining process.

ACCEPTANCE OF TRUST AGREEMENT

The Employer and the Labor Organization accept and agree to be bound by the terms of the Trust Agreement governing the Trust, and any subsequent amendments to the Trust Agreement. The parties accept as their representatives for purposes of participating in the Trust the Trustees serving on the Board of Trustees and their duly appointed successors.

Provided, however, that in the event that either Section 2 or 3 of Article VIII of the Trust Agreement is amended to change or modify an Employer's liability as specified therein, such amendment will not be deemed applicable to an Employer until such time as the Employer enters into a successor Collective Bargaining Agreement after the expiration of the Employer's then current Collective Bargaining Agreement.

APPROVAL OF TRUSTEES

This Agreement has been approved by the Board of Trustees of the Washington Teamsters Welfare Trust.

Employees are entitled, at their option; to have Union representation during any investigatory interview conducted by Employer that the employee reasonably believes may result in discipline of the employee. During any such investigatory interview, a participating Union representative will be given the opportunity to ask questions, offer additional information and counsel the employee, but may not obstruct the Employer's investigation.

5.5.3. The Employer may, at its discretion, place employees on paid administrative leave during disciplinary investigations. Employees on such paid administrative leave must remain available during their normal hours of work.

5.7. Job Descriptions

5.7.1. The Employer shall be required to provide job descriptions for each employee classification included in the bargaining unit. Job descriptions are intended to be a generic description of the basic functions of specific employment classifications. Such notification shall include the specific modification made or the entire text of the new job description, whichever is applicable. Such job description shall not be considered valid unless dated and adopted by signature of the authorizing director.

The Employer shall reimburse the employee for all reasonable fees and costs associated with such training.
5.8.3. Voluntary attendance at non-required training courses, for the purpose of individual career advancement or enhancement, shall not be considered compensable work time provided that the following four (4) general principles are met:

a) Attendance is outside the employee’s regular working hours; and

b) Attendance is in fact voluntary. It is not voluntary if attendance is required by the Employer or if the employee is led to believe that non-attendance will prejudice working conditions or employment standing; and

c) The employee does not perform productive work during such attendance; and

d) The program, lecture, or meeting is not directly related to the employee’s job.

5.9. Shop Steward & Negotiating Committee

5.9.1. Not more than two (2) bargaining unit members, comprised of shop stewards or other members selected by the Union, shall be allowed to participate in contract negotiations, provided, however, no such attendance on Employer’s time shall occur at a time where a critical service, as determined by the Employer and/or his designee, to the public would be interrupted or withheld.

5.9.2. The Union shall be permitted to post appropriate meeting notices and general Union information on designated bulletin boards on the Employer’s premises.

5.10. Bargaining Unit Work

5.10.1. During the term of this Agreement, the Employer may contract out work which could be performed by the bargaining unit so long as such contracting of work does not directly cause the loss of an existing bargaining unit job position.

5.11. No Strike Clause

5.11.1. The Employer and the Union agree that the public interest requires the efficient and uninterrupted performance of all the Employer’s services and to this end, pledge their best efforts to avoid or eliminate any conduct contrary to this objective. The Employer and the Union recognize that the cessation or interruption of the services of the employees is in violation of this Agreement.

5.11.2. The Union and the employees shall not cause or engage in any work stoppage, strike, slowdown, or other interference with Employer functions. No employee shall willfully absent himself or herself from his or her position, or abstain in whole or in part from the full, faithful and proper performance of his or her duties of employment for the purpose of inducing, influencing or coercing a change in his or her conditions of compensation, or rights, privileges, conditions or obligations of employment of themselves, fellow employees, or other employee groups.

5.11.3. The Union agrees and all employees agree, it and they shall not, at any time, authorize, instigate, sanction, cause, participate in, encourage, or support any strike affecting the Employer. Strikes shall also be defined to include, but shall not be limited to, slowdowns, stoppages of work, tie-ups, sit-ins, mass absences due to sickness or other reasons, demonstrations, picketing (except where constitutionally permitted), boycotts, obstructionism, or any other form of concerted activity such as disruption, interruption, or interferences in any manner or kind whatsoever with any and all operations, facilities or activities of the Employer. The Union and the Employees agree that they will not honor any picket line established by any labor organization in the event of being called upon to cross such picket line in the performance of duty.

5.11.4. Employees who engage in any of the foregoing prohibited actions shall be subject to such disciplinary or discharge actions as may be determined by the Employer including, but not limited to, recovery of any financial losses suffered by the Employer as a result of such prohibited actions.
5.11.5. Employees shall not be entitled to any benefits or wages whatsoever while they are engaged in a strike, boycott, slowdown, mass sick call, any form of work stoppage, refusal to perform duties, or other interruption of work or prohibition contained in the foregoing paragraphs.

5.11.6. In the event the Employer determines that a breach of any of the foregoing provisions has occurred, the Employer shall, as soon as possible, attempt to notify the Union of the alleged breach.

5.12. Job Bidding/Promotions

5.12.1. Whenever a job opening occurs, other than a temporary opening, in any existing job classification, or as the result of the development or establishment of a new job classification, within the bargaining unit, a notice of such opening shall be posted on all bargaining unit employee bulletin boards for ten (10) working days. Such notice shall contain the specific job classification and the criteria required for application to the position. All job openings shall be made available to the employees of the bargaining unit unless no current employee possesses the required qualifications. In such case, the vacant position may be advertised outside of the bargaining unit. It is understood that the Employer may assign, on a temporary basis an employee to work in an area outside his bid area to cover vacancies or to assist with special projects or for occurrences such as disasters which require additional supervision.

5.12.2. Promotions or changes in job classifications shall be considered temporary for a period of thirty (30) calendar days from the date of promotion or change. Within the thirty (30) calendar day period, if the employee requests return to the previously held classification or should the Employer and/or his designee decide the employee is unsuitable for the job, the employee shall revert to the employee's former job classification. An employee who is removed from a promotional or changed position, at the sole discretion of the Employer during the employee's six (6) month trial period, shall be permitted to return to the employee's formerly held position and placed at the applicable wage and benefit level.

5.12.3. An employee who changes from one job classification to a higher range job classification shall be placed at a step which will provide a minimum of five percent (5%) increase in salary on the salary range of the job classification to which the employee is promoted. If the top of the range is less than five percent (5%), the top of the range shall be applied.

5.12.4 When a bargaining unit employee is promoted into a supervisory position, and such promotion skips normal progression, an additional five percent (5%) will be added to the employee's placement prior to section 5.12.3 being implemented.

5.13. CDL Medical Examination

5.13.1 When a CDL is required as a job classification prerequisite, the employee shall obtain and maintain such license. The Employer shall reimburse the employee for the cost of the CDL endorsement renewal minus the cost of the driver's license renewal and any other endorsements not required by the Employer for the performance of the job. The Employer shall reimburse the employee for the bi-annual physician's exam to the extent the same is not covered by applicable health insurance, and then only to the extent of a $40.00 out of pocket reimbursement maximum.

5.14. Boot Allowance

5.14.1 Upon completion of the employee's probationary period, employees may request, and at the employer's discretion, may be granted up to $150 annually towards the purchase or replacement of work boots if such boots are necessary for health and safety reasons of the employee's normal work environment.
6. COMPENSABLE HOURS

6.1. Hours of Work

6.1.1. The employee's work week, to be determined at the sole discretion of the Employer, shall be one of the following:

   a) Five (5) eight (8) consecutive hour days, Monday through Friday, with two (2) consecutive days off.

   b) Four (4) ten (10) consecutive hour days, Monday through Thursday with three (3) consecutive days off.

6.1.2. An alternate shift schedule, not to exceed forty (40) hours in a designated work week, may be made by mutual agreement of the Employer and the affected employee(s).
