9.20.070 Law and justice plan. SHARE

The law and justice council may develop a law and justice plan for Lewis County, including performance objectives and priorities, estimated costs, and schedules for completion of activities. Such a plan may address the following topics:

- (1) Maximizing local resources including personnel and facilities, reducing duplication of services, and sharing resources between local and state government in order to accomplish local efficiencies without diminishing effectiveness;
- (2) Jail management;
- (3) Mechanisms for communication of information about offenders, including the feasibility of shared access to databases; and
- (4) Partnerships between the department and local community policing and supervision programs to facilitate supervision of offenders under the respective jurisdictions of each and timely response to an offender's failure to comply with the terms of supervision.

Upon completion of such a plan, the law and justice council shall transmit it to the board of county commissioners and the municipal authorities of all the cities in the county. If approved by the county commissioners and the municipal authorities of all the cities in the county, the plan shall be the law and justice plan for Lewis County. The law and justice council may regularly review and adjust the plan as changing circumstances require, and may recommend such changes as it finds appropriate to the board of county commissioners and the municipal authorities of all the cities in the county for approval. [Ord. 1282 §1, 2017; Ord. 1200 § 1, 2008]

9.20.080 Annual report. SHARE

The law and justice council may deliver a formal report of progress toward attainment of performance objectives and completion of planned activities at least annually to the board of county commissioners and to the county community at large. [Ord. 1282 §1, 2017; Ord. 1200 § 1, 2008]

9.20.090 Advisory duties. SHARE

The law and justice council may also advise the county commissioners and municipal authorities and make such recommendations as it deems appropriate on matters relating to the law and justice in Lewis County. [Ord. 1282 §1, 2017; Ord. 1200 § 1, 2008]
