LEWIS COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE TO HOST CITIZEN FIREARMS SAFETY CLASSES

The Lewis County Sheriff's Office will host its first ever Citizen Firearms Safety Class on Saturday, March 26th from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. This free class will be held at the Law and Justice Center in Chehalis.

As part of Sheriff Rob Snaza's ongoing commitment to service to the community, and in support of responsible firearms ownership and individuals' Second Amendment Rights, this training will provide citizens of Lewis County with an opportunity to learn more about basic firearms safety, marksmanship, and laws regarding the use and carry of firearms.

The four-hour training session will culminate with the use of a firearms simulator for attendees to experience realistic split second decision making in the use of deadly force.

The training will be limited to 25 participants. Participants must be 18 years of age or older, a resident of Lewis County, and be able to pass a criminal history background check.

Those who are interested in participating should contact Captain Dusty Breen at (360) 740-1327 or dustin.breen@lewiscountywa.gov.

If more than 25 people wish to participate, a lottery style drawing will be held. Those chosen for the class will be notified no later than March 4th. Depending on the interest, future classes will be scheduled.
