1.1.2 Although the preceding paragraph refers to the Lewis County Commissioners, the Lewis County Assessor, collectively as the "Employer," it is understood between the parties signatory to this agreement that this agreement shall not alter or diminish any of the inherent rights statutory empowered to each duly elected official.

1.2 Purpose

1.2.1 It is the purpose of this agreement to achieve and maintain harmonious relations between the Employer and the Union, to provide for equitable and peaceful adjustments of differences which may arise, and to establish standards of wages, hours, and working conditions.

2. RECOGNITION

2.1 Scope of Bargaining Unit

2.1.1 This bargaining unit shall consist of all full-time and part-time employees working in the office of the Lewis County Assessor, excluding the elected officials, confidential and casual employees, supervisors, and employees in all other Lewis County departments.

2.1.2 Bargaining Unit Employee Definitions. Listed below are the employee definitions applicable under the terms and conditions of this agreement.

- a) Full-Time Employee. A full-time employee shall be defined as an employee who regularly works forty (40) hours each week.
- b) Part-Time Employee. A part-time employee shall be defined as an employee who regularly works less than forty (40) hours each week.
- c) Probationary Employee. A probationary employee shall be defined as employee who is serving his or her six (6) month probationary period.

During such period, a probationary employee's employment status with the Employer shall be strictly "at will" and shall have no appeal recourse through the grievance procedure of this Agreement. The "probationary employee" designation may be applied to either a full-time or a part-time employee.

(cc) Non-accredited appraisers shall have twelve (12) months from the date of hire to take and pass the initial IAAO test. Should the employee fail to pass the initial test, the employee will have three (3) months to retake and pass the test. The three (3) month period for retesting shall commence upon learning of the failure of the initial IAAO test. Failure to pass the IAAO test within the three (3) month extension period will result in termination of employment without recourse to the grievance procedure even through the employee's basic six (6) month probationary period may have been completed.

d) Casual Employee. A casual employee shall be defined as an employee who is employed to perform work on a regular or irregular basis for a specified period of time. A casual employee shall be excluded from the terms and conditions of this agreement. The scope and duration of the work to be performed by a casual employee shall be determined by mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union. Disputes arising from application of this provision shall be resolved through the grievance procedure.

3. UNION SECURITY

3.1 Membership Requirement

3.1.1 The Employer and the Union agree that all employees holding positions covered under this collective bargaining agreement shall meet one of the following conditions.

a) The Employer and the Union agree that all present members of the Union shall as a condition of employment remain members in good standing while holding positions included in the bargaining unit. All future employees holding positions in the bargaining unit shall, as a condition of employment become and remain members in good standing after completing thirty (30) calendar days of employment.

b) The Employer and the Union agree that each must safeguard the right of employees to not belong in a Union, if a legal objection is based upon bona fide religious tenets or teachings of a church or religious body of which the employee is a member. In such cases, such employee shall pay an amount of money equivalent to regular union dues and initiation fee to a non-religious charity or to another charitable organization mutually agreed upon by the employee affected and the Union. The employee shall furnish written proof that such payment has been made. Such deductions are to be transmitted to the Union each month. Contributions to charitable organizations based upon a bona fide religious objection to membership in the Union, as set forth in Section 3.1.2, shall be likewise deducted and remitted to the appropriate charity.

to exercise such right, prerogative, or function in a particular way, shall not be considered a waiver of the Employer's management right to exercise such right, prerogative, or function or preclude it from exercising the same in some other way not in conflict with express provisions of this Agreement, however, the Employer recognizes that RCW 41.56 may impose an obligation for the Employer to negotiate changes in wages, hours, and working conditions not covered by this agreement.

c) In the event, the Employer has a reasonable belief that no one in the bargaining unit possesses the required qualifications for the available position, the Employer may simultaneously advertise the position outside of the bargaining unit during the required posting period, however, the simultaneous posting does not relieve the Employer of its obligations imposed by this provision relative to making the position(s) available to employees within bargaining unit for those applicants who unexpectedly apply and meet the required qualifications for such position.

5.2.2 The application shall be in writing and shall be submitted to the Employer for consideration.

5.2.3 Promotions or changes in job classifications shall be considered temporary for a period of thirty (30) calendar days from the date of promotion or change. 5.2.5 A written and/or oral examination may be required for all promotional or vacant positions. The weight of scoring of the oral and/or written examinations shall be determined by the Employer and/or designee, however, the weight given to each section of the examination shall be posted at the time the job announcement is made. Such leave shall be granted in order that the person may take part in active training duty in such manner and at such times as he or she may be ordered to active training duty. Such military leave of absence shall be in addition to any vacation or sick leave to which the employee might be otherwise entitled, and shall not involve any loss of efficiency rating, privileges or pay (RCW 38.40.060). During the period of military leave, the employee shall receive from the Employer his or her normal pay. The employee shall provide the Employer with a copy of official orders prior to reporting for duty. Any additional leave will be considered under applicable federal law.

5.5.4 Family and Medical Leave. An eligible employee shall be allowed to participate in, be subject to, and be entitled to the leave provisions provided by County Resolution. The employee shall be entitled to either the provisions of the County Resolution or the Family and Medical Leave Act, whichever provides the employee the greater benefit.

5.6 Investigations

5.6.1 Employees have an obligation to cooperate with any investigation conducted by the Employer. Failure to do so will be considered insubordination and will be grounds for discipline, up to and including termination.

5.6.2 Whenever an employee is being interviewed by the Employer in circumstances that may lead to disciplinary action against the employee, the employee will be advised prior to the start of the interview of the subject of the interview and the right to have Union representation at the interview.

5.6.3 Employees are entitled, at their option, to have Union representation during any investigatory interview conducted by Employer that the employee reasonably believes may result in discipline of the employee. During any such investigatory interview, a participating Union representative will be given the opportunity to ask questions, offer additional information and counsel the employee, but may not obstruct the Employer's investigation.

5.6.4 The Employer may, at its discretion, place employees on paid administrative leave during disciplinary investigations. Employees on such paid administrative leave must remain available during their normal hours of work. Paid administrative leave is not considered to be discipline and is not subject to the grievance procedure.

5.6.5 Any interview and questioning of an employee shall be conducted during the employee's shift unless the urgency of the matter dictates otherwise.

5.6.6 At the time of completion of the investigation of a non-criminal possible disciplinary matter, the Employer shall notify the employee in writing of such completion as soon as reasonably possible.

5.7 Personnel Files

5.7.1 Each employee shall have the right to inspect and review his or her personnel file, in accordance with the following proscriptions. The review and inspection shall be supervised by Employer or designee. The employee shall not alter or remove any document contained in the personnel file. Such inspection shall occur not more frequently than once per calendar year unless the Employer otherwise consents. Any third party agent, Union or otherwise, of the employee shall be permitted review and inspection only if authorized, in advance and in writing, by the employee. The inspection time and date shall be at the mutual convenience of Employer and employee, but in any event shall not be later than ten (10) days following the employee's request.

5.7.2 An employee may provide rebutting written information to be included in the file if the file content, or any portion thereof, is believed by the employee to be irrelevant or incorrect and the Employer or designee refuses to remove such information.

Job descriptions are intended to be a generic description of the basic functions of specific employment classifications. The Employer shall provide the Union with written notice of a modification to any existing, or adoption of any new, job description at least fifteen (15) days prior to intended implementation date. Such notification shall include the specific modification made or the entire text of the new job description, whichever is applicable and the proposed or existing compensation for such position.

5.9.2 An employee shall be required to notify the Employer as to any event which may be construed as sexual harassment prior to initiating any other formal action. Upon receiving a report of sexual harassment, the Employer shall conduct an investigation to determine the merit of the allegations and initiate appropriate remedial action.

5.9.3 In the event the Employer's actions are determined to be inadequate, the employee is free to file his or her complaint with the appropriate State or Federal agency for remedial action.

5.10 Training

5.10.1 It is recognized that the Employer has the authority to direct an employee to attend any and all school and training sessions as directed by the Employer and/or his designee. 5.10.2 An employee who is required to operate a motor vehicle shall be required to attend a defensive driving course within their first year of employment.

5.10.3 If the Employer directs, an employee shall attend an Employer approved basic first aid course and CPR training and/or renewal training at such intervals as determined by the Employer. Time at such training shall be compensable at the employee's applicable rate of pay.

5.10.4 The Employer will provide all training for employees as required by statute, legal mandate or Employer policy. Any employee attendance at training required by the Employer as a condition of employment shall be compensated at the employee's applicable rate of pay. The Employer shall reimburse the employee for all reasonable fees and costs associated with such training including transportation, meal, and lodging costs, and, if necessary, the costs of one challenge to a course not passed by the employee; provided, however, that the Employer will not pay the costs of or compensate employees for the time required to take the same training course more than once absent a statutory requirement that the employee repeat a course previously taken; and provided further that the Elected Official supervising the employee may, in his or her sole discretion, authorize exceptions to this policy.

5.10.5 Voluntary attendance at non-required training courses, for the purpose of individual career advancement or enhancement, shall not be considered compensable work time provided that the following four (4) general principles are met:

- a) Attendance is outside the employee's regular working hours; and

- b) Attendance is in fact voluntary. It is not voluntary if attendance is required by the Employer or if the employee is led to believe that non-attendance will prejudice working conditions or employment standing; and
- c) The employee does not perform productive work during such attendance; and
- d) The program, lecture, or meeting is not directly related to the employee's job.

5.11 Shop Steward & Negotiating Committee

5.11.1 Not more than two (2) bargaining unit members, consisting of shop stewards or other members selected by the Union, shall be allowed to participate in contract negotiations on Employer paid time. Provided, however, no such attendance on Employer's time shall occur at a time where a critical service, as determined by the Employer and/or his designee, to the public would be interrupted or withheld. The Employer may request that negotiations be conducted on a "split time" basis, half on Employer paid time and half on the employee's non-paid time and such request would be honored provided that advance written notice is provided to the Union.

5.11.2 The Union shall also be permitted to post appropriate meeting notices and general Union information on employee bulletin boards.

5.12 Volunteer Limitations

5.12.1 Volunteers may be used to supplement but not supplant a bargaining unit position in the work force. Volunteers shall include but shall not be limited to those individuals participating in state sponsored retraining programs.

5.13 Training Opportunities

5.13.1 Employees shall be given information concerning training opportunities by postings placed on the Employee Bulletin Board located in the conference/lunchroom. The postings will include information concerning the name of the class, location of the class, date, cost and number of credit hours earned.

5.13.2 Employees shall put in writing any training opportunity requests giving name of class, date, location, etc. and an explanation of why the training will be beneficial. The request is then given to the immediate supervisor for review before going to management for approval or denial.

5.13.3 Employees shall be given a written approval or denial of a request for training opportunities after a review of budget limitations, requirements needed to maintain accreditation, promotional opportunities, and training required to maintain or enhance present positions.

5.14 No Strike Clause

5.14.1 The Employer and the Union agree that the public interest requires the efficient and uninterrupted performance of all the Employer's services and to this end, pledge their best efforts to avoid or eliminate any conduct contrary to this objective. The Employer and the Union recognize that the cessation or interruption of the services of the employees is in violation of this Agreement.

5.14.2 During the term of this Agreement, the Union and the employees covered by this Agreement shall not cause or engage in any work stoppage, strike, slowdown or other interference with Employer functions. No employee shall willfully absent himself or herself from his or her position, or abstain in whole or in part from the full, faithful and proper performance of his or her duties of employment for the purpose of inducing, influencing or coercing a change in his or her conditions of compensation, of the rights, privileges, conditions or obligations of employment.

5.14.3 The Union agrees and all employees agree, it and they shall not, at any time, authorize, instigate, sanction, cause, or participate in any strike affecting the Employer. Strikes shall also be defined to include, but shall not be limited to, slowdowns, stoppages of work, tie-ups, sit-ins, mass absences due to sickness or other reasons, demonstrations, picketing (except where constitutionally permitted) boycotts, obstructionism, or any other form of concerted activity such as disruption, interruption, or interference in any manner or kind whatsoever with any and all operations, facilities or activities of the Employer. The Union and the employees agree that they will not honor any picket line established by any labor organization in the event of being called upon to cross such picket line in the performance of work duty.

5.14.4 Employees covered by this Agreement who engage in any of the foregoing prohibited actions shall be subject to such disciplinary or discharge actions as may be determined by the Employer including, but not limited to, recovery of any financial losses suffered by the Employer as a result of such prohibited actions.

5.14.5 Employees shall not be entitled to any benefits or wages whatsoever while they are engaged in a strike, boycott, slowdown, mass sick call, any form of work stoppage, refusal to perform duties, or other interruption of work or prohibition contained in the foregoing paragraphs.

5.14.6 In the event the Employer and/or his designee determines that a breach of any of the foregoing provisions has occurred, the Employer and/or his designee shall, as soon as possible, attempt to notify the Union of the alleged breach.

8.2.1 Nothing within this provision shall be construed to limit the Employer’s ability to impose administrative leave as a precursor to possible disciplinary action. Listed, but without limitation, the forms of discipline shall generally include the following:

8.2.2 Oral Warning. This type of discipline should generally be used for infractions of relatively minor degree. The Employer and/or designee should endeavor to inform the employee, in private, that it is an oral warning and that the employee is being given an opportunity to correct the condition. If the condition is not corrected, the employee may be subject to more severe disciplinary measures.

8.2.3 Written Warning. This notice will generally be issued by the Employer and/or designee in the event the employee disregards an oral warning or if the infraction is severe enough to warrant a written record in the employee’s personnel file. The Employer will set forth in the notice the nature of the infraction.

8.2.4 Demotion. This form of discipline is generally administered when the employee’s actions or inaction’s have continued or recurred after being advised of misconduct, or failure, or after commission of a serious act of misconduct or when unable to adequately perform the responsibilities of the position held.

8.2.5 Suspension. This form of discipline is generally administered as a result of a violation after the employee has received a written warning and has not adequately improved or corrected performance, or after commission of a serious act of misconduct. The Employer shall inform the employee in writing of the disciplinary action. The original signed copy of the disciplinary action notice is to be placed in the employee's personnel file and a copy provided to the employee.

8.2.6 Discharge. If in the opinion of the Employer, the infraction(s) is (are) so severe as to necessitate immediate termination, the Employer and/or designee should take action by placing the employee on suspension without pay until circumstances are reviewed prior to final action. A predetermination hearing in which the employee is advised of the basis for discharge shall occur prior to a termination.

8.3 Appeals of Discipline

8.3.1 Employees (other than probationary employees) may appeal a disciplinary action other than an oral warning through the grievance procedure as provided in this section.

- a) Any disciplinary action except for oral warnings may be appealed through Step 2 of the grievance procedure.
- b) Disciplinary demotions, suspensions and terminations may be appealed to Step 3 of the grievance procedure.

8.3.2 In the event that a written warning or other discipline (other than an oral warning) that an employee may not appeal to Step 2 of the grievance procedure is used as a basis for a subsequent demotion, suspension or termination, the employee may challenge the written warning or other discipline in a subsequent grievance arbitration, provided that the employee appealed the original discipline through Step 2 of the grievance procedure, and did not accept an adjustment of the discipline as a result of that appeal.

9.3 Processing Steps

The party exercising the first strike shall be the loser of a flip of a coin.

9.4.3 The arbitrator shall have no power to render a decision that will add to, subtract from or alter, change, or modify the terms of this Agreement, and his or her power shall be limited to interpretation or application of the express terms of this Agreement. All other matters shall be excluded from arbitration.

9.4.4 The arbitrator shall rule only on the basis of information presented in the hearing and shall refuse to receive any information after the hearing except in the presence of both parties and upon mutual agreement.

9.4.5 The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding upon the Employer, the Union, and the employees involved provided the decision does not involve action by the arbitrator which is beyond its jurisdiction.
