Veterans Relief Program Services on Temporary Hold

Chehalis, WA – The full range of Lewis County Veterans Relief Program services are on temporary hold while the county seeks a new Veterans Benefit Specialist. During this time, all routine services have been suspended.

The search for a new Veterans Benefit Specialist is ongoing. During this time, a limited capacity to serve veterans requiring emergency assistance remains available on the 3rd floor of the Public Health Building, 360 NW North Street, in downtown Chehalis.

Lewis County will send out a notification when the Veterans Relief Program has been staffed and is ready to resume full services. Anyone with questions about available services during this transition should call 360-740-1223.
